IMPORTANT INFO

Budapest is the capital of Hungary and a major Central European city, famous for its historic architecture, thermal baths and vibrant cultural life. Hungary uses the Hungarian forint (HUF), although cards are widely accepted in shops, restaurants and hotels. The official language is Hungarian, while English is commonly used in tourist areas and international environments. The European emergency number is 112. Budapest has four distinct seasons, so check the weather before travelling and bring comfortable shoes, as many attractions can be explored on foot. Hungary uses 230V electricity and European-style plugs.

MEANS OF TRANSPORT

Budapest has an extensive and affordable public transport system consisting of metro, trams, buses and trolleybuses, making it easy to travel around the city without a car. The metro is particularly useful for longer journeys, while the famous yellow trams provide convenient connections along major routes. Budapest is also very walkable, especially in the central districts. For journey planning and tickets, the BudapestGO app is the most useful official tool, while Google Maps can help with routes and walking directions.

LOCAL TIPS

Budapest combines traditional Hungarian culture with a modern international atmosphere. Take time to explore local cafés, bakeries and markets and try some typical Hungarian dishes. Popular specialities include goulash, lángos, chicken paprikash, chimney cake (kürtőskalács) and Hungarian pastries. Budapest is also famous for its thermal baths, which are a great way to relax after a busy training or job-shadowing day. For an authentic experience, explore the city's neighbourhoods beyond the main tourist attractions and enjoy the views along the Danube.

POINTS OF INTEREST

Budapest is divided by the Danube River into Buda and Pest, connected by several historic bridges. The city offers a remarkable combination of imperial architecture, cultural landmarks and lively urban spaces. Visit the impressive Hungarian Parliament Building on the Danube, explore Buda Castle and enjoy panoramic views from Fisherman's Bastion. In Pest, discover St. Stephen's Basilica, Heroes' Square and the lively streets of the historic centre. The Chain Bridge is one of Budapest's most recognisable landmarks and provides beautiful views of both sides of the city.
